PERSONALS.

Lem Roberts is in from Humboldt.
Geo. Ingersoll is back from Virginia.
Charley Fassett returned to Ruby Hill yesterday.

F. Olugage, the stage man, came in from the East last night.

Sheriff Walker and Hon. R. H. Lindsay returned home yesterday.

The Democrats talk of nominating Judge Seawell for Supreme Judge.

Charlie Gilchrist came in from Mono last night, and continued on to the Bay.

J. Griffin, Roadmaster of the C. P. at Humboldt, is sojourning at the Palace Hotel.

Isaac H. Cory, a merchant from San Francisco, leaves on this morning's train for the Comstock.

John F. Paige (old Jack), of Truckee, is stopping at the Palace under the friendly tutelage of Al White.

Frank Bell leaves for Eureka this morning to attend to some business for the Nevada Bell Telephone Co.

Governor Evans returned from Elko last night. He thinks the Elko and Humboldt delegates will support him.

W. E. Price and C. E. Laughton started for Cornucopia yesterday morning to examine their mining interests in that district.

Two children of A. A. Longley were taken suddenly sick yesterday afternoon, and Dr. Bergman was called upon to attend them. Upon his return last evening he stated that they were doing well.

T. R. Hofer, an employee of the Mint, with his wife and child, arrived from Carson yesterday, and are awaiting the arrival here of Miss Adelaide Waters, a prominent actress, now on her way East. She is a sister to Mr. Hofer's wife.

A Swarm of Tramps.

The various tramps Thursday and yesterday as they passed here deposited a whole caboodle of tramps who made things quite lively in the neighborhood of the depot. Yesterday afternoon they started a variety performance alongside the freight office, and sung and danced all the afternoon and apparently had a good time. Last night's emigrant train brought another half-dozen to replenish the ranks. The Constable managed to reach the private ear of a half dozen of the most prominent, and advised them that it would be much better for their health if they were to make themselves scarce inside of twenty-four hours. The warning seemed to have good effect, as at an early hour last night but few of them could be seen.

Splendid Beer.

Last evening Charley Becker sent a half dozen bottles of beer to the thirsty JOURNAL office. To say that it was fine beer would only be to half describe its merits. It is some of the Hoffmann Brewery's latest brew, and is in body, sparkle and taste, equal to the best beer on the coast. Charley is as proud as a peacock over his splendid new beer, and well he might be. It is a compliment to his taste as a Dutchman and good judge of fine beer.

A Spiritualistic Warning.

C. D. Stoy, the lunatic brought from Douglas county, by Sheriff Williams for lodgement in the Insane Asylum, has gone cranky on spiritism. He imagines himself at one time a medium and at another a disembodied spirit.

I. O. G. T.

F. J. Culver, Grand Lecturer, will lecture at the Baptist Church this evening, and at the M. E. Church Sunday evening. All are invited to attend.

About 10 o'clock one evening, at a house just out of town, the domestic detected a boy effecting an entrance through a window. Without raising an alarm, she watched the little fellow, who went direct to a closet, and taking something from a self, was about to make his escape, when the servant arrested him with the plunder in his possession. Which was fine single stone diamond ring, which was bought for $50 of Uncle Harris, 221 Kearny St., San Francisco.

George Hammersmith, who had a severe attack of bilious fever, has got around again, and is ready to shine your boots in good style. George is the boss shiner of the State, therefore people should give the boy a chance.

The East-bound Overland was two hours late yesterday morning, caused by an accident to an engine down below Newcastle.

Yesterday was a "zephyr" day.

The Approaching Gaming Season—A Hint to Hunters.

On the first of next month the close season expires, and the crack of the shotgun and rifle will be heard resounding over the meadows and mountains in pursuit of winged game. For the benefit of the many sportsmen of Washoe county and vicinity, the provisions of the game law are given here condensed as applying to this county:

1. It is unlawful at any time to kill or injure, or pursue with such intent, any sparrow, blue-bird, bluejay, martin, thrush, mocking-bird, swallow, redbreast, cat-bird, wren or humming-bird, or to disturb the nest or eggs of said birds. [Nest-hunting boys should be on the lookout.]

2. Between the first of next month and April next the sportsmen may tackle any partridge, pheasant, woodcock, quail, or any wild goose, wood-duck, teal, mallard or other duck, sandhill crane, brant, swan, plover, curlew, snipe, grouse, robin, meadow lark, yellow hammer or bittern, provided they can find them.

3. Between the first of September and next March, sharp-tailed grouse, so-called prairie chicken, may be killed, and converted into scientific stews.

From the first of August last up to the first of next December, deer, antelope, elk, mountain sheep or goats may be killed and feasted on after a hunting tour.

5. Skunks, snakes, coyotes and bad-boys may be killed at any period of the year.

6. A man or two for breakfast will not be objected to, provided the Sheriff in a hangman's capacity can be eluded.

7. The fine on conviction of any one killing prohibited game outside of these named seasons is from twenty-five to two hundred dollars, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, half to go (the fine, not the imprisonment) to the prosecuting witness.

With a view to spy out the land before the season opened, Mr. R. F. Hoy last Wednesday took a trip through the valley, within a ten mile circuit, especially visiting those parts where game has hitherto been known to abound. He shot one coyote, but his dog failed to catch him, owing to his gun being loaded with fine shot. He succeeded in bagging five doves and saw plenty of quail, but only one sagehen. Seasonable game for the close season was very scarce, but plenty of birds that could be winged after the 1st could be seen all around. This ought to be good news for sportsmen.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly.

The September number is even more than usually interesting. It is remarkable for the comprehensiveness and excellence of its contents. The opening article, "The Federal Cities and Capitals of the United States," by J. Burnitz Bacon, with ten illustrations; "A Few Words about St. Gothard and Tunnels in General," eight illustrations; and "A Frog," by Andrew Wilson, with fourteen illustrations will not fail to receive marked attention. There are serial and short stories by M. C. Hungerford, Burke O'Farrell, R. A. Lea, etc.; some delightful sketches, adventures, etc., by favorite writers, poems (sentimental, comic and descriptive), several of them admirably illustrated, and a large amount of miscellaneous articles, paragraphs, etc., which will afford pleasant and instructive reading. There are in the number 128 quarto pages and over 100 embellishments, together with a beautiful frontispiece, "The Right Path," a picture in oil colors. The price of a single number is 25 cents, or $3 per annum, postpaid. A specimen number will be sent free by enclosing 25 cents to Frank Leslie, Publisher, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

Great Snake!

Rattlesnakes are not so scarce in the vicinity of the town as many imagine. They are known to be plenty in the upper rocky foothills and ravines, but were not supposed to come down to low wet ground. About three quarters of a mile up the other side of the river, they are quite plenty around the bluff which slopes towards the Truckee. A good many of the youngsters sometimes go up to the locality, to swim for a change, and should be on their guard. On the same side not long ago a gentleman saw a hoop snake rolling, which is rather a curiosity for this part of the country.

A Tough Job.

The iron fence in front of the Court House is being gradually put in place. The worst part of the job has been sinking the post holes, some boulders being met with five feet in diameter, which will have to be blasted in order to remove them. The curbing will probably be of brick, painted and lined. Some comments are being made on the smallness of the gate, which is single and only four feet wide. It is thought that a double one would have looked much better.

Yesterday week the dairy of William Chandler, Sierra Valley, was destroyed by fire. With it went a lot of 600 pounds of butter.

Democratic primaries to-day.

A Sad Affliction.

Yesterday afternoon a sad case of dementia was brought up for examination before Dr. Dawson, Dr. Hogan charitably volunteering to assist. The examination was conducted in the Times office, the patient, quite a respectable gentleman, being seated in the local's chair, during the investigation. His mania is a mild one, at times fancying himself to be Horace Greeley, Dana or Judge Goodwin. He also is afflicted with a hifaluten disjointed manner of speaking which is very distressing to hear. The public are not perhaps aware, that an examination of this kind is conducted in the slyest way by the doctors, every suspicion of what they are after being carefully concealed from the patient and only the most roundabout questions asked, all however leading to the main point in the end.

THE EXAMINATION.

About half past two yesterday, the two physicians unsuspectingly glided into the office and seated themselves by the afflicted gentleman. "Good afternoon," remarked Doc. Dawson. "Darnation hot weather, isn't it?" chimed in Doc. Hogan, as he mopped off. "Yes, gentleman," replied the unsuspecting invalid. "The state of my corporosity seems to smagggatate of a demnition Plutoman curious condition of the atmospheric envelope in which we live, move and have our being. By the way, gentlemen, 'curious condition' is devilish good, let's soak it in alcohol," and he set 'em up. The doctors glanced significantly at each other. Calling himself a "corporosity" when "shadow" would have been a better term, was the first proof of mental unsoundness. "Well," continued Dr. Dawson, "How do you find things generally?" "Flabbergasted, Torveydropped and generally Topsy-turvigated. The concatenation of occurrences is positively making me turgescient." The two examiners here exchanged a glance of pity. "Why," continued the gentleman, "I was actually accused of making an 'egregious error' the other day." "But don't you know?" inquired Doc. Hogan, "that egregious means distinguished from the common herd? Only great editors like Horace Greeley and others of his stamp could commit egregious errors? I consider it a compliment." "True! True! That strikes me in the proper light," and the demented smiled all over, whispering to himself repeatedly, "a second Horace! a second Horace!" This was the last straw that broke the doubt in the doctor's minds. The warrant was issued by the Court, the asylum van sent for and the unfortunate taken out under pretense of taking a carriage ride. He was put in a padded room, but it is confidently expected that he will be back cured, to resume his duties next Monday afternoon.

Diaphanous.

Commenting upon Dr. Clark's excuse, the Carson Appeal says:

This explanation is given for what it is worth. It sounds quite plausible, but the fact that Dr. Clark was financially interested in keeping patients as long as possible lends weight to the theory that the charges are worth considering. Dr. Clark was here at the last Legislature, actively lobbying against the passage of the Reno Asylum bill, the passage of which would materially decrease his income. Private mad houses should be abolished by law for the reason that the keeper makes more money by retaining the patients as long as possible and restricting their diet and personal comforts. The responsibility is too great for one man and has in many instances led to gross fraud and injustice. The only system which can effectually prevent wrong is that which puts the power of civil, as well as the opportunity, out of the hands of those who would be benefited by a commission of it.

Winnemucca's School.

The Silver State of Thursday has this:

The Trustees have been most fortunate in securing the services of Professor Ring, of Reno, as principal of our public school. He is said to be among the very best teachers on the coast. He has taught for twelve years in Reno. A short time ago, on his return from a two-month's trip in the mountains, the citizens of Reno gave him a public reception in the large theater building, which was packed to its fullest capacity. Miss Emma Linn, the graceful and popular young lady who has taught the primary department for two years, will continue in her department. The school will commence on the first Monday in September.

A Strange Violentist.

One evening last week a stranger handled a violin in such an artistic way in the Palace saloon, as to attract a crowd of listeners to the corner. He handled his bow in a manner that showed him to be no mean performer, and the large crowd paid him the high homage of profound silence. Who he was and where he was going are not apparently known.

To Pyramid.

Gen. Forman and Supt. Boyle came down from the Comstock last night, and in company with C. Derby and Alvaro Evans will leave for Pyramid this morning to examine the Jones & Kinhead mine.

The Republican County Central Committee meets to-day.

THE MEADOW FLOODS.

A Plan to Avert Them.

The people of the Meadows are preparing to support heartily the improvement in the Truckee channel at the narrows, which Mrs. Bladell is advocating. While high water in the river is of no danger scarcely in the vicinity of Reno, it causes the lower meadows to be extensively flooded, very often to the great injury of the ranchers. The cause of it is easily understood. Before the river reaches a point a mile and a half east of Vista, in the narrows, it has a depth of ten to fifteen feet, but no fall. Then comes a shallow stretch of a mile, interspersed with numerous rapids or riffles, the fall on this portion being nearly eight feet to the mile. Then comes deep water again. Besides, the bed of the Truckee throughout the mile of falls is very narrow. It can readily be seen how this narrow and shallow stretch acts as a dam; and whenever a rush of water comes from above it backs up as far as Glendale, flooding the lower meadows. It is proposed to widen the bed at this point and take out the obstructions so as to make it four feet deeper. This would give quite a fall to the river and enable the water to flow off far more rapidly and in much greater volume. The fall from Glendale to Vista is very slight, as can be seen at any time by looking at the sluggish brooklets and streams flowing eastward. Only last spring Kieppe's ranch was under water, and it will be remembered how at the time the surveyors were locating the line of the C. P. water was four feet high in the barroom of the Glendale Hotel, and houses were swimming all over the valley. Parties there used to live and cook in a boat and sleep in hay-mews. It was that flood that ruined Glendale's chances of having the R. R. Depot and town located there, which there was every prospect before that of her having. The same flooding might occur again, and ruin thousands of dollars' worth of property. Even to avert the backwater of every year the project should be pushed through, and undoubtedly will if everybody takes hold.

Two Coming Treats.

This evening Dr. York, who proved himself a most able lecturer last Sunday evening, will deliver his second lecture course at Nevada Theater, at eight o'clock, his topic being "Common Sense." As this is what all Renoites especially pride themselves in possessing, it would be well for them to go and be measured by a common standard. The result might be astonishing. On Sunday night another lecture will also be delivered by the Doctor which promise to be very interesting. There is no charge for seats, and the lectures will benefit everybody. Don't fail to attend.

Police Item.

Dublin Pete, or Annie, a resident of Douglas Avenue, made things quite lively nights before last, and was arrested yesterday by Constable Avery, on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. She pleaded guilty and paid her fine and costs, amounting to fourteen dollars.

Attention is called to the notice of Hall & Painter, well known grocers, in the 50-cent. They never get left behind on any proposition.

The name of Judge Bishop will not be presented. He is not in the field for any position. The Eureka delegation will probably vote for Kinhead on the first ballot, and there is no telling who they will go for after it.—Eureka Leader.

A COUGH, COLIC OR SORE THROAT should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Troches have been recommended by physicians, and always gives perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at the a box everywhere.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, AND CONSUMPTION.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one, but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation or maintained it so long as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years, that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it yon for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.
